

Amanda Gonzales

Amanda Gonzales earned a B.A. from California State University San Bernardino and an M.A. in Administration from the University of Phoenix. She has been in education since 2000. During this time she has served as a classroom teacher, a site English Learner Coach, a district Teacher on Special Assignment supporting English learners, and a consultant with the Riverside County Office of Education.

Amanda enjoys working with teachers and helping them plan the best possible lessons for their English learner students. She is well known for her engaging staff developments and ability to support teachers with classroom application of the Common Core State Standards and the California English Language Development (ELD) Standards. Her area of expertise is in language development with a focus on reading and writing.

cabepds@gocabe.org

(626) 814-4441 ext. 212

20888 Amar Rd., Walnut, Ca 91789