

Tours Day 1

Oaxaca

Monte Albán

City where the Zapotec people thrived over 2,000 years ago. Imagine strolling through the ruins of grand temples, palaces, and ball courts, with stunning views of the valley below.

Arrazola

The art of crafting alebrijes has been passed down through generations, making Arrazola a cultural gem where tradition meets creativity.

San Bartolo Coyotepec

Famous for its stunning black pottery. Artisans here shape clay into exquisite pieces using age-old techniques.

Tours Day 2

Oaxaca

Árbol del Tule

The Arbol del Tule in Oaxaca, Mexico, is a massive cypress tree, over 2,000 years old and one of the widest in the world.

Teotitlán del Valle

Best known for the handwoven rugs, blankets, and textiles made here—has been a historic weaving town since the pre-Hispanic period

Mitla

Mitla is the second-most important archeological site in the state of Oaxaca in Mexico, and the most important of the Zapotec culture.

Hierve El Agua

An infinity pool of natural spring water on the top of a cliff with endless views of the surrounding mountains. Beautiful petrified waterfall cascades appearing as if it has been frozen in time.

Fábrica de Mezcal

Tour through maguey fields, tasting mezcal and other beverages. Learn about artisanal mezcal production and enjoy tastings of different agave varieties and blends.
