2024-25 Governor's June Budget Summary

Jennifer Baker, CABE Legislative Advocate

June 24, 2024

The Legislature is set to vote on a final budget package on Thursday, June 27th, which the Governor is expected to sign. The final budget includes revenue estimates included in the May Revision and closes the final $28 billion 2024-25 projected shortfall, while additionally addressing the budget in 2025-26, leaving $11 billion in the Rainy Day fund for future use.

The budget includes a total of $211.5 billion in General Fund spending, $86.4 billion from other state funds, and $153 billion in federal funds. Overall revenues include savings from a three-year net operating loss suspension, beginning in 2024.

The Assembly has signaled it wishes to work with the Senate and Governor to create a new account to temporarily hold future projected budget surpluses for a year to ensure certainty of their existence. They would additionally like to create a constitutional amendment on a future state ballot to increase the size of the Rainy Day fund while excluding specified deposits from the Gann Limit.

Education Funding

The final budget includes a modified package of what the Governor previously bargained with education stakeholders. This agreement will allow $6.2 billion of previously appropriated funds from 2022-23 to accrue over a period of years, beginning in 2026-27 through 2035-36, essentially allowing these funds to be accounted for over a number of years, instead of in 2022-23.

TK-12 funding totals $136 billion in 2024-25, including all funding sources, bringing total per pupil funding to $24,626, and $18,354 per pupil from Proposition 98 funding. The final budget agreement suspends Proposition 98 in 2023-24 (SB 154), while maintaining constitutional protection for future growth. The revised total funding for 2023-24 is $98.5 billion, which is $3 billion lower than was provided in the May Revision. Proposition 98 funding for 2022-23 totals 98.5 billion. The 2023-24 suspension creates an $8.31 billion in "maintenance factor," which will be paid back to schools and community colleges with high future funding until it is paid off. Further, $8.4 billion is provided through the Public School System Stabilization Account (PSSSA), leaving $1.1 billion in this reserve.

The final budget defers $2.58 billion in 2022-23 funding which is paid using PSSSA funds in 2023-24. It creates a one-time $4 billion deferral in 2023-24, which is paid off in 2024-25, while additionally creating a one-time deferral in 2024-25 of $245.6 million and authorizing deferral warrants for LEAs.

Proposition 98 funding for 2024-25 equals $115.27 billion, with $4 billion in "maintenance factor" revenues being paid back into the Proposition 98 base. This budget package includes protections for both certificated and classified school personnel for the 2024-25 school year, including a one-year freeze on local education agencies' ability to terminate both permanent and probationary certificated and classified staff between the time the budget is enacted and August 15th of the budget year if the local control funding formula cost-of-living is less than two percent. The budget provides a 1.07 percent cost-of-living adjustment for 2024-25, which includes $89.2 million to statutorily required programs, including the COLA for the LCFF equity multipliers, nutrition, and the mandate block grant.
