

Bilingual Foundation of the Arts
presents:

Venecia en el Horizonte
De Jorge Accame
October, 2015

Sinopsis –

En una zona marginal de la ciudad, La Gringa, una madama decrépita y ciega, delira recurrentemente, soñando con viajar a Venecia para reencontrarse con un viejo amor. Las tres chicas que trabajan con ella, desean hacerle su sueño realidad pero como el pasaje es demasiado caro, deciden crear un viaje ficticio (aprovechando la poca vision de la Gringa). El avisado conserje se les une en el plan y entre los cuatro crearan una gran confusion y un sin número de divertidísimos malentendidos.

Venice on the Horizon
By Jorge Accame

Synopsis

In a lower class part of the city, La Gringa, an older madam, is often delirious and dreams about traveling to Venice to meet her old lover. The three women, who work with her, want to make her dream a reality. Since travelling to Venice is so expensive, they decide to make her believe she is taking the voyage. They take advantage of the fact that she is nearly blind.

The three women and two men who are friends create a plan to bring forth the ruse. The result is a very funny comedy of errors and ingenious planning to make La Gringa happy. The resulting reunion with her old lover is tender and nostalgic. A beautiful love song is sung at the end.